Continuation Sheet (PTO-303)

Advisory Action

1. On cursory consideration, the request for reconsideration, which has not been entered, does not clearly appear to overcome the rejections.

Furthermore, the request for reconsideration neither place that application in condition for allowance nor place the application in better from for the appeal by materially reducing or simplifying the issue for appeal.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicants' arguments filed on July 14, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' argument in the response to the Office action of May 12, 2005 is basically similar and repetition of the previous arguments. Since, these arguments and the Examiner's position clearly communicated in previous Office actions (see The Examiner's answer that was mailed on May, 19, 2004 and Final Office action that was mailed May 12, 2005), the Examiner respectfully incorporates the above Office actions by reference in response to the current Applicants' argument.

Accordingly, the rejections of claims 1, 2, 8, 9, 11, 16 and 17, under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) deemed proper. In addition, the rejections of claims 3-7,10 and 12-15, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) is also deemed proper because the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) is proper and the prima facie case of obviousness has been met.
